Thank you for signing up for Port of Long Beach community updates at either one of our booths at an event or by signing up directly on our website!

Need something to do over the weekend? Have a student in the household? What's going on with those big cranes?

With this monthly newsletter, you will be notified of upcoming free community events that we sponsor, education resources, photos of events, and the latest on Port projects.

We're excited to share the Port's story with you. It is after all, YOUR PORT.

Paid Internships Available

If you are or know a sophomore, junior or senior high school student in LBUSD's service area, don't miss out on the opportunity to explore Port careers during an 8 week program this summer. Did we mention it's paid?

Applications are being accepted beginning Feb. 4 with a deadline on Mar. 4. Go to polb.com/internships for more information and to apply.

There are also immediate openings for college interns in Communications and Human Resources available.

Explore the Harbor on a Free Port Tour

The Port's popular Harbor Tours are coming soon. We know these are in high demand so tours are now starting in April instead of May - adding an additional month of tours!

There will be a special social media tour to kick-off the season in late March. Make sure to follow us @portoflongbeach on Twitter and Instagram and like us on Facebook to learn more.

General reservations for April tours will be available Mar. 2 at 12 p.m. Go to polb.com/porttours for more information.

Big Ships, Green Technology and More

The Port's Chief Executive, Jon Slingerup, reviewed 2014's accomplishments and outlined future plans at the annual State of the Port Address. Here he is pictured with Mayor Robert Garcia, who also spoke at the event. You can watch the video here.

Were you at the 27th Annual MLK Jr. Peace and Unity Celebration?

The Port was a proud sponsor of the 27th Annual Long Beach Martin Luther King Jr. Peace and Unity Parade Celebration on Jan. 17. Check out pictures from the event, you may even catch a picture of yourself if you were there!
