

Love Long Beach

There is a lot to love about Long Beach and now there is a festival to celebrate our great city! The free two-day celebration is just one component of Summer Beach Party -- a series of summer events put on by Alfredo's Beach Club and sponsored by the Port of Long Beach.

There will be a variety of great food, local art, beach sports, live music, yoga classes and more at the festival.

Also, the Port is celebrating the 10th anniversary of its Green Port Policy, which established a framework for environmentally friendly Port operations. On Saturday, July 18, the Port will be on hand to show the community the technology and programs we have implemented to reduce pollution and improve the quality of life in our community.

See the diving equipment the Port uses to make sure operations are safe on and under the water, learn how our environmental team tests water quality, touch local marine life at the Aquarium of the Pacific's Aquarium on Wheels and more.

You can find out more about the Love Long Beach Festival at lovelongbeachfestival.com.

We have a lot of fun activities and contests planned this summer, so make sure you are following us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter or visiting our website to be in the know.

And share your pictures with us throughout the summer by tagging them with #POLBbeachparty.

Calling All Photographers!

The Port of Long Beach is partnering with the Arts Council for Long Beach to host a free three-part photography experience. The three-part series begins in July with a photography workshop taught by our talented port photographers followed by the opportunity to board a boat and go on an exclusive twilight photo-shoot of the port.

The only requirement to participate is a DSLR camera. Reservations open Wednesday, July 8, at noon and are limited to 75 people. You can RSVP by clicking here.

For more information on the program, visit www.polb.com/photoworkshop.

Historical Photo Exhibit

In celebration of Port Town, the newly released 500-page book detailing the rich history of the Port and the City of Long Beach, the Port is partnering with the Historical Society of Long Beach for "Port Town: A Historical Photo Exhibit." This exhibit will display one-of-a-kind artifacts, photos and video to bring to life the remarkable transformation of a marshy mud flat into one of the greenest, most prosperous and modern ports in the world.

The grand opening for the exhibit is Aug. 7, in conjunction with the popular First Fridays in Bixby Knolls. At the grand opening there will be an opportunity to meet authors George and Carmela Cunningham for an informal discussion and book signing.

Limited edition leatherette hardcover copies of Port Town will also be available for purchase at the gallery for $45 with proceeds benefiting the Historical Society. The book is also available on Amazon and as a free download on iTunes as an iBook.

The exhibit will be available for viewing at the Historical Society gallery at 4260 Atlantic Ave. until Nov. 6. Gallery hours can be found here.

Keep up to date with all of the book-related news by visiting porttown.polb.com or by following the Port on social media.
