New "Pulse of the Port" Airs on Web, Cable Latest episode features Green Port Fest, Fire Station 15, more

December 16, 2008

The latest episode of Port of Long Beach's award-winning television program, "Pulse of the Port," is now available for viewing on the Port's web site, www.polb.com/videos, Youtube.com and on Long Beach Television Channel 8.

This month's "Pulse of the Port" shows how the Port's biggest public event of the year, Green Port Fest, is educating the public about environmentally friendly Port improvements. Other features include an update on the groundbreaking Clean Trucks Program, fireboat operators, and Ricoh, a local business.

"Pulse of the Port" began airing in September 2005 and, since then, has won awards from the American Association of Port Authorities and the California Association of Public Information Officials.

Previous episodes, which are archived at www.polb.com/pulse, featured Hex, a Customs canine trained to sniff out illegal drugs that may be smuggled aboard cargo ships, and the proposed $750-million Middle Harbor Redevelopment Project.

"Pulse of the Port" airs Mondays at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m., Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., Fridays at 7 p.m., Saturdays at 7:30 p.m., and Sundays at noon on Long Beach Television Channel 8.

The program was recently launched on Youtube, where the latest episodes can be viewed. The Youtube site can be accessed at <http://youtube.com/user/portoflongbeach>.
