Latest 'Pulse' TV Airs on Web, Cable Episode features security center, Colorado Lagoon, more

April 17, 2009

The latest episode of Port of Long Beach's award-winning television program, "Pulse of the Port," will be available for viewing on the Port's web site, www.polb.com/videos and on Long Beach Television Channel 8 beginning Monday, April 20, 2009.

This month's "Pulse of the Port" visits the Port's newly opened, very high-tech Security Command and Control Center. Other segments include Port Executive Director Dick Steinke's "State of the Port," the dedication of the USS Green Bay, students helping out at Colorado Lagoon and a look at the Port's colorful logo and banners.

"Pulse of the Port" began airing in September 2005 and, since then, has won recognition from the Telly Awards, American Association of Port Authorities, the City-County Communications and Marketing Association, and the California Association of Public Information Officials.

Previous episodes, which are archived at www.polb.com/pulse, include segments such as one on the $750-million Middle Harbor Redevelopment Project.

Catch "Pulse of the Port" Mondays at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m., Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., Fridays at 7 p.m., Saturdays at 7:30 p.m., and Sundays at noon on Long Beach Television Channel 8.
