

Come Celebrate the Port's 100th Birthday party on the docks June 25

April 25, 2011

Save the date and join us as the Port of Long Beach celebrates its 100th Birthday Party on Saturday, June 25, 2011. This event is free open to the public.

There will be music, carnival rides and exhibits that recognize the Port's proud history and its extraordinary people, past and present.

The festivities will be from 2:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and will feature:

- The Long Beach Municipal Band
- Ferris wheel and merry-go-round
- The premiere screening of "Faces of the Port," a 30-minute film documentary narrated by actor Robert Wagner.
- Photo exhibit in a hall specially constructed from a cargo container
- "Let's Talk Centennial" panel discussion moderated by veteran maritime reporter George Cunningham
- Memory Boards where visitors can share their own remembrances of the Port
- Free hot dogs
- And more

The 100th Birthday Party will be held right on the docks in Pier E, just south of the Gerald Desmond Bridge, at Ocean Boulevard and Pico Avenue. Visitors are encouraged to bring picnic baskets and lawn chairs and make a fun, family day out of it.

Parking is free, and there will be a bicycle valet.
